

Sarah Stephenson is a young soprano who has been trained in classical voice for the past 7 years. She has won numerous Kiwanis and Coquitlam District Music Festival competitions, and was the CDMF Provincial National Representative in Musical Theatre in 2017. Sarah has a passion for musical theatre and won a scholarship from Kiwanis to participate in “Gotta Sing Gotta Dance” in 2017. She also enjoys singing at church, school assemblies, and has performed at both Canada Day celebrations and the Maritime Festival in Richmond. Sarah attended the UBC summer vocal workshop in 2018 and hopes to study music at UBC after high school.